A Nesded Change .- We are sure it will give general satisfaction, the change recently made, allowing the evening Eastbound train on the Toledo road to stop at Oberlin. Hitherto that train has passed that station at fall speed, and been a source of great inconvenience to a large number of people.

"OUR YOUNG FOLKS."-We have received rom A. J. Hawks and Cobb, Andrews & Co., copies of the June number of this very popular Youths' Magazine. Mrs. Stowe, Edmund Kirke, Captain Mayne Reid, "Carleton," and other fescinating writers continue their charming serials on "Ou Dogs," "Three Days at Camp Donglas," "Affoat in the Forest," and "Winning bis Way," and Trowbridge writes a fine story on "The Turning of the Leaf," and Gail Hamilton publishes "A Business Letter." The "Lessons in Magic" are continued, and other articles, with illustrations, charades, &c., &c., fill up this number of the best exts . s magazine for the "Young Folks."

OR THE RECEPTION OF THE SOLDIERS .- The Council Committee, the County Military Committee and the Citizen's Committee, met at the Mayor's office last evening, to listen to the reports of sub-committees. with reference to the arrangements made and to be made for the reception and entertainment of the various Northern Obio regiments which are soon to come here to mustered out of service. On motion of the Mayor, Stillman Witt, Esq., look the chair. F. Brown soled as Secretary.

The Mayor stated that he had sent a telegram to General Swords, at Cincinnati, inquiring if he could furnish tents, if the authorities in charge of the matter should see fit to use them in the entertainment of the soldiers. The General replied that he would furnish the requisite number of tents to the Quartermaster here.

Mr. Edwards reported with regard to the music for the occasion, and Colonel Hayward on the arrangements for feeding the soldiers.

Two plans or programmes of receiving the troops were submitted. But nothing definite could be determined on until it is known whether the City Council will make the necessary appropriation of money to meet the expenses. The matter, we understand, will be called up before the Council this evening at their regular meeting. Whatever plans are made in the direction of honoring the returning soldiers will be speedily developed after the Council shall have John E. Veught, Michael Duncan and taken the all-important initiative.

They ran round to the other end of the car and got on to the steps, when he again saw them, and sgaig helped them off, and ordered them away from the car. By this time the passengers began to arrive, and at east three of them took a standing position (the car being full) on the front platform. The car had not then started, nor had the the children on the steps or platform after that. The accident undoubtedly occurred in this way : After they were put off the second time, they got hold of the bar between the wheels on the outside of the car, where they clung unbeknown to any one, until the car got in motion, when they dropped down, and the hind wheel passed over the legs of one and the toes of the other. In corroboration of this, the rear wheel was spotted with blood, while not a particle, on the most minute investiga-

FAIRT FINGERS. A Novel. By Anna Cora Bitchie. New York: Carleton. 1865. After a long interval, Mrs. Ritchie, (late Mrs. Mowatt,) the celebrated actress and author of the "Auto-biography of an Actress," has given the world another touch of her quality in the authorship of "Fairy Fingers," a book of fiction. The scene of the story is laid in France, and the artist attempts, with flattering success, the portraiture of the habits, manners and customs of the people of that country. The book will find many admiring readers. Ingham & Bragg have it for sale.

MEADVILLE ITEMS.

Daily correspondence of the Chveland Luaven.] MEADVILLE, May 21, 1865.

Mr. Taylor, the proprietor of the Mc-Henry House, has taken from the window tain classes of readers. All such will be of the room occupied by J. Wilkes Booth delighted at the announcement of still an- last summer while here, the pane of glass other work of action from her pen. It is upon which Booth inscribed with a dis-written in a pleasant manner. upon which Booth inscribed with a dis-mond ring the following inscription and prediction: "Abe Lincoln departed this life, August 13, 18"4, by the effects of poison." This glass is neatly framed in a dark-colored frame, with corresponding background to make the writing show to better advantage. For several days past it has been hanging up in a conspicuous place in the office of the McHenry House. and has attracted much attention. I understand that it is the intention to send it to the Sanitary Fair at Chicago. The Treasurer of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway has given notice that, on and after the first of June, all payments for freights or passage must be made in leg ! tender or national currency. Agents are also instructed to charge a discount of one per cent. on all State banks, when tendered in payment.

This action of the Treasurer will assist naterially in carrying out the designs of the Yankees in this section of the State, and it is hoped that our business men will adopt the same measure very speedily. United action will give us a healthy and good currency, and the present is the time to act unitedly on this question, in which we are more or less interested.

Last week and the week previous, the State banks of Crawford and Venango counties retired nearly $200,000 of their circulation. They intend withdrawing all their notes from circulation. The Pennsylvania State Universalist Society intend holding a convention at Conneautville, in the western part of this county, on the 7th of next month. C. A. Derickson and Arthur Cullum have been appointed agents for this place, to receive subscriptions to the Lincoln memorial

Since the flood of March last, travel to the oil region has fallen off materially. Two express trains, however, are still running daily between this place and Oil City. The cars now leave Meadville comfortably filled with passengers. Before the inundation they were crowded almost to suffocution, with speculators and oil seekers from all sections of the Union.

Work has been resumed on the roundhouse and machine shops of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway Company. Whether or not, it is the design of the company to finish up all the buildings they originally contemplated locating here, I am unable to state. Should this be done, it will afford work sufficient for several hundred men for some time to come, and, for the time being, add materially to our population.

At the time of the building of the Mc-Henry House, it was asserted by many that the house was too large for Meadville, and consequently would never pay the interest on the money invested. Time has proven to the contrary of their predictions, and ever since the opening of the hotel the proprietor has experienced great difficulty in accommodating the traveling public and his boarders. The company proposed building a large addition this summer, but have abandoned the idea. They will, however, put up a number of small houses on the grounds in the rear of the main buildings, capable of affording sleeping room for eighty or a hundred persons.

CORA JAMES .- We have received the follower lowing note which explains itself:

EXECUTIVE MASSION, COLUMBUS, May 20, 1805. COLUMNUS, May 20, 1805. J
EDITORS LEADER:—In the article in today's Leader in reference to Cora James, it is stated that James Ceff, Marshal of St.
Louis, Mo., was "detained some time in the Capital city by the absence of Governor
Brough and the Secretary of State, whose names were needed on his requisition."-This is an error into which you were un-doubtedly led by the Marshal's telegram. The Governor and Secretary of State have been here all the week, and even if it had been otherwise their absence would have occasioned no delay in the matter. The occasioned no delay in the matter. The fact is, the requisition from the Governor of Missouri was not prescribed at the Depart-ment until yesterday afternoon, and Mr. Ooff was furnished with the proper war-rant in time for him to leave for Cleve-land on the first train thereafter, his own, or any other statement to the contrary notwithstanding. So much for the benefit of the St. Louis Marshal.

the St. Louis Marshal.
In reference to Mrs. Cora James, it may be stated that the papers on filehere charge her with the crime of Grand Lurceny, and not Arson. The property stolen consisted of a pair of bed blankets, sheets, pillow alips, one quilt and aspittoon. Allof which were valued at $42,00. Very respectfully, F. A. Marses, Private S-cretary.

DIED. RVANS .- On the Foth inst., Caroline, wife of Sergeant Wm D Evans Figure all to be held at the house of Mr. C. Reeves 9s Pitteburgh street, at 2 c clock this afternoon. Friends of the lemily are invited to a tund.

MORNING LEADER OFFICE, MORDAY EVENING, May 22, 1865. There con'inues to be the same unsettled and depressed some pravading nearly all departments of mercantile besiress that we have been compelled to note from day to day for a long time past, and the prospect for change, at least in the direction of improvement, seems as remote, and is quite as uncertain as ever. The relative position of the mar-kets at the seabourd and in the West is still such as to utterly preclude theshipment of Projuce from the latter, and while the merchants of the East are persistent in marking lower figure, those of are persistent in making lower agure, made of the West are equally obstinate in multitaling the widnet possible separation. Which is to be suc-cessful in this almost unpricedents if content upon prices we do not claim the foresight to de ermine, but it is to be hoped the cu'mination will not be much lenger de syed.

There is noted in money circles in this city to-day a considerably freet demand for Excharge, and the market is quite close, rates ruling fromer at par buying and 369% premium selling. There was also an increas d demand from borrowers but general'y there is no disposition on the part of the Banks to extend their accommodations beyond the wants of their regular oustomers, and few outsiders are favored. The fereign news received yesterday was not such as to make any particular impression upon the markets in this country, and we discover no material effec a from it is our New York advices Gold opened this morning at INF6 and closed at IP.
